

An Autumn Day Retreat

“Everyday is a miracle, everyday a gift.”

A retreat day at Knowles Mercy Spirituality Center
2304 Campanile Rd, Waterloo, Ne. 68069 ~ Website: www.kmscenter.org

Wednesday, September 29, 2010—9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

Cost: $30 includes retreat, continental breakfast, and lunch

Take time away to discover the Sacred in the ordinary events of life. Explore what poets have found that “the earth’s crammed with heaven.” And “every bush afire with God.” Through prayerful reflection, sharing, and listening we will explore ways to watch and be attentive to the Presence of the Holy One in all of life. We will attempt to understand with St. Francis “that everything imparts God’s grace.”

Add an overnight...stay the night after the conclusion of the retreat on Wednesday. Enjoy some quiet time away in our peaceful, prayerful environment and natural woodland surroundings. A private room for the night would be $40 or share a room with a friend at $30/person. (Coffee and evening snack provided.)

Facilitator: Sylvia Thompson has been a Religious Ed Coordinator and Pastoral Associate at St. Mary’s Parish in Bellevue and has worked with the Columban Mission Society as Director of Mission Education in the US region. A long time friend of Knowles Mercy Spirituality Center, we are pleased to have Sylvia facilitate this day celebrating the autumn season.
