

Driving Directions to Knowles Mercy Center

2304 Campanile Rd, Waterloo, NE 68069

The Center is not 'physically' in the city of Waterloo, but closer to Venice, Nebraska, near the Platte River. Waterloo is the mailing address.

TRAVELING FROM OMAHA ON DODGE

Go west on Dodge past Village Point Shopping Center and Elkhorn. Take the Wahoo exit off Dodge. Do NOT take the Waterloo exit. Come to a stop sign and then go across the road remaining on West Dodge Road (now two lane). Go about 2 miles to a stop sign where you will see a sand pit. Take a left on to 264th Street. Go about 1 ½ miles to Pacific street where you will go right. Follow Pacific Street, it curves and becomes Campanile Road. You will go about 1 ½ miles. Look to your right. The building sits up on the hill. You have gone past the retreat center if you come to West Center Road/Highway 92

You will pass 264th Street where there is a flashing yellow traffic light and a gas station with a Subway Restaurant (keep going West approximately 1 mile). You will see two buildings on the south—Buck's Bar and Grill and Venice Hair Works (across from your turn). There is a sign for Campanile Road and for the Center right where you need to turn. Go right (north) on Campanile Road. (If you cross the Platte River, you have gone TOO FAR - turn around and come back over the Platte River bridge and take the first left.) Drive ¼ mile north on Campanile Road to the Center on your left.

Turn north (left) at the two buildings and you will be on Campanile Road. The Center is ¼ mile north on the west side of Campanile Road. There is a large Knowles Mercy Center sign on the front of the building. You have gone too far if you get to the blinking yellow lights where there is a gas station.
